

Incepto / Aalto Capital
Press Release
October 19, 2022

INCEPTO JOINS FORCES WITH A EUROPEAN CORPORATE FINANCE FIRM AND CHANGES ITS NAME TO AALTO CAPITAL AS

The Norwegian Corporate Finance firm Incepto Partners will from 19th. October be part of the international Corporate Finance firm Aalto Capital.

Aalto Capital is a full-service corporate finance advisory firm with offices in London, Helsinki, Stockholm, Munich and Zurich. The company was established in 2009 and currently has 60 employees and delivers a wide range of financial and M&A related services such as capital raising, debt financing, mergers and acquisitions, investor relations and financial ESG and CSR reporting (sustainability and social responsibility).

"We notice from our clients that it is becoming increasingly important to have an international presence when selling businesses or assisting with capital raising or acquisitions. In Aalto Capital, we have found the right expertise, geographical spread, and service mix. This means that we will have increased capacity and a better service offering to our clients", says Svein Stavelin, Managing Partner at Incepto Partners, now Aalto Capital in Norway.

Picture from Oslo office

"We are happy to have expanded our geographical footprint with Norway. In addition, Aalto Capital is complemented with cutting-edge expertise and networks within the IT/Technology segment", says John McRoberts, Managing Partner at Aalto Capital London.

For more information:

Aalto Capital AS

Svein Stavelin

Managing Partner

Tel. +47 90 06 43 61

svein.stavelin@aaltocapital.no

Incepto Partners is a corporate finance and advisory services firm focusing on value creations for owners of businesses within the technology-, consulting- and services-markets. The services include M&A, Financial Strategy and Transaction Support.

Recent official transactions are the sale of Økonomibistand AS to Equip Capital and the sale of Communicate Norge AS to Credo Partners.

In 2021 Incepto Partners AS had revenues of 18 mill NOK with an operating profit of 10 mill NOK.

The Interim Management business part of Incepto will continue its operation as Incepto Executive AS (see www.inceptoexecutive.no).

Aalto Capital is an international full-service corporate finance firm helping ambitious companies realize their true potential. The provided advisory services can be broken down into five core categories – capital raising, debt advisory, mergers and acquisitions, investor relations and non-financials. The company focus on medium-to-large entrepreneurial companies, it is growing, and employs currently more than 60 professionals through offices in 6 countries. For more information, see www.aaltocapital.com.